(b) and (c) Yes, Sir. The Heads of Government renewed their commitment to the Commonwealth's fundamental political values and reviewed global political and economic developments. They called for firm deterrent measures by the United Nations Security Council against states, entities and organisations which harbour and train terrorists or promote international terrorism. The Heads of Government also called for increased international cooperation to ensure that the benefits of globalisation are shared more equitably. The Meeting also, inter-alia, endorsed the decision to suspend the military regime in Pakistan from the councils of the Commonwealth pending restoration of democracy, requested the Commonwealth Ministerial Action Group to keep the situation in Pakistan under review and urged that Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif and others detained with him be released immediately.

Non-Aligned Movement

324. SHRI ANANTRAY DEVSHANKER DAVE: Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) whether Government consider NAM to be an important and relevant forum which could be used to achieve some foreign policy goals like promoting peace and stability in the world, encourage South and South Cooperation, work out a common approach to the International Financial problems etc;

(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) the details of the steps taken by Government to play more active role in NAM?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI JASWANT SINGH) (a) to (c) Yes Sir. The Government of India considers NAM to be an important and relevant forum to achieve our foreign policy goals of promoting peace, disarmament and development. India played a pro-active role in the XIIth NAM Summit at Durban in September 1998, as well as NAM Ministerial Conference at New York in September 1999 to strengthen NAM consensus in these areas. India has also worked assiduously to strengthen NAM's internal cohesion to enable it more effectively to place the concerns of nonaligned and developing countries at the centre of international agenda.
